Idea of hiring co. administrator gets cool commission reception

The idea of hiring a county administrator met little enthusiasm from Randall County commissioners who spent Monday continuing examination of 1977 budget proposals.

The idea was brought up by Commissioner John Fulgenzi after several commissioners noted the lack of a formal policy for setting salaries and granting increases.

Monday's session was a repeat of a meeting a week ago during which commissioners admitted past errors in budget management and vowed to stiffen their resolve this year to keep spending within budgetary restraints.

"Here a year or two ago we looked at each department (and its budget) and we stuck it in file 13 because there's nobody to administer it," Fulgenzi said. "Do we need an administrator?"

"In a way it could be useful and in a way not," Commissioner Jim Fletcher said. "Everybody elected to county office is supposed to be doing their work administering the budget."

County Judge Woody Pond suggested the county auditor named to succeed Betty Hodges, who has resigned, set up a sound salary schedule for county employees and administer it.

But Commissioner Dee Griffin said today's salaries paid county employees are unreasonably low and must be brought up to be equitable.

Salaries for county employees consumed the bulk of the time county commissioners spent examining department expenditure budgets Monday.

At the urging of Fletcher, each commissioner in turn announced opposition to the granting of an across-the-board 6 per cent salary increase for county employees.

Pond and Mrs. Hodges had included in the proposed 1977 budget a 6 per cent contingency fund from which salary increases could be drawn and Fletcher made it clear the funds should be dispersed among employees according to their job performance.

Even so, Griffin noted, Randall County has a problem with depressed salaries.

"The problem we have to face is that we've been working under rural area salaries and now we're a metropolitan area and we've got to move to metropolitan area salaries to compete," he said, predicting it would take a general salary hike of 20 to 25 per cent to bring county employee salaries to a competitive level.

The discussion of salaries began when County Tax Collector Mrs. Audrey Bruse asked for a salary increase for Wayne Williams, an employee in her office. She told commissioners he has worked for the county since August 1971 and now has a salary of $650 per month.

Commissioners voted to raise his pay by 13 per cent to raise his salary to $750 effective June 1. Another 6 per cent hike, they said, would put him at $800 per month later this year.

But commissioners refused to hike the hourly wage of an office worker in South Amarillo. A motion by Fulgenzi died for lack of a second to raise to $3 per hour the wage of a worker there.

In other business on the budget, commissioners put off until next Monday a decision on whether to hire an outside firm to reevaluate Randall County property or whether to do the job in-house.

They told Mrs. Hodges to add (See COUNTY, Page 5)

New member sounds warning on board de-annexation decision

School Board Member Mrs. Jean Irwin sounded a note of warning Tuesday night when she told the board Canyon district voters have expressed the intention of allowing Amarillo to continue annexing north district properties.

"I think the voters have told us they're not going to build schools for children in Amarillo," Mrs. Irwin said, citing the recent defeat of two bond issue proposals.

Her warning came as the board tacitly agreed to shelve for the present a petition presented by several property owners of a 360-acre tract north of Estacado Estates for detachment of the land from the CISD for annexation by Amarillo district.

The warning came after Supt. Jerry Jacobs told board members the land in question was outside the area delineated in informal guidelines recently discussed by both school boards to be used in future de-annexation and annexation requests.

Jacobs had indicated dissatisfaction with the perception of the Amarillo board of the guidelines' purposes and effects. He had also noted last week that the 360-acre tract did not fall within the area included in the guidelines.

Board President Tom Keeling told Robert Templeton, attorney for the property owners, to prepare an escrow agreement and allow the Canyon board time to check the metes and bounds description of the property and the qualifications of the one resident of the property before action would be taken on the petition itself.

Mrs. Irwin noted that the board had trouble recently floating a $2.9 million bond issue for construction of a new elementary school in the north part of the district and implied that part of the trouble resulted from a lack of desire among Canyon taxpayers to finance schools in Amarillo.

Templeton told the board during his presentation the landowners will pay $72,000 to the Canyon district to offset any loss of potential taxes from the property.

And, he agreed to establish an escrow account for the purposes of putting up the funds.

In other business Tuesday night, the board agreed to begin negotiations with the City of Amarillo for extension of water and sewer lines to the new elementary school site at Western and Sundown.

Cost for the project will be about $100,000.

The board also heard a progress report on the 1975-76 budget. Business Manager Ronnie Wood told board members the cafeteria fund has a surplus of about $17,000 after the school year.

He said the athletic department also has not spent all that is budgeted. Wood said the athletic department had been budgeted a total of $26,000 for the year and had so far spent about $21,000.

Athletic Director Deane Wright said early Wednesday he hoped the department would not have to spend the other $5,000 this year.

He attributed the under-spending to the improved football gate receipts last year among other things.

Jacobs told the board that before late July they must approve a 1976-77 school year budget, set a tax rate and approve the new tax roll.

Jacobs said all that must be done if the board hopes to sell the $2.9 million in bonds for new construction by late July. He said the district could expect an interest advantage by quick selling of the bonds.

The board will meet July 6 to look at a preliminary budget for next year and will probably hold (See WARNING, Page 5)

Fund-raising idea runs head-on into legal bind

The tight-budgeted Canyon Chamber of Commerce ran head-on into legal problems this week with an idea the chamber board believed might make the organization solvent.

It was a good idea while it lasted.

The idea was proposed by Former Chamber President Eddie Knowles, who owns a new and used car dealership here. His proposal: that the chamber board sell raffle tickets at $1 apiece to Panhandle area residents for the eventual give-away of a Phaeton Classic, a limited edition vintage-style automobile Knowles owns.

Knowles told chamber board members Monday night they might be able to raise as much as $40,000 by selling chances on the give-away of the $10,000 automobile, which he called a

"Chitty Chitty Bang-Bang Car."

But the board learned Tuesday from Assistant Dist. Atty. Rick Wilcox that they might also wind up in jail for the promotion.

Wilcox said he told Board President Don Johnston and Manager Roland Black Tuesday morning that the proposed raffle would be illegal and unconstitutional in the State of

Autograph party set Sunday

An autograph party for Panhandle Pilgrimage, Illustrated Tales Tracing History In The Texas Panhandle, will be held from 2 until 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon.

On hand in the north gallery of the museum to autograph the book, hailed by The Amarillo Globe-News as possibly one of the Panhandle's best Bicentennial efforts, will be R. L. and Pauline Durrett Robertson, the authors.

The book devotes several pages, including two pages of pictures, to early-day Canyon. Publisher Troy Martin said the public is invited.

Festivities are finalized for July 3 celebration

A home town festival is in store for Canyon Days '76 as Canyon and Randall County residents join in the local observance of the nation's bicentennial birthday. The local celebration, like many across the Texas Panhandle, will be conducted on Saturday, July 3.

The bicentennial planning committee, headed by Jane Stephens, finalized planning for the festival this week and have asked for cooperation of all local residents in making the event a home town affair.

Canyon's Conner Park will be filled with activities throughout the afternoon of July 3 with the annual barbecue and free fireworks display to conclude the festivities.

At 1 p.m. on July 3, a gigantic community-wide flea market will open at the park with booth arrangements being handled by the women's division, Canyon Chamber of Commerce. Locals desiring booths may contact Genelle Bourland, 655-7941, for space reservations at $3 per booth space.

Also filling out the afternoon at the park will be a variety of exhibits coinciding with the flea market from 1-4 p.m. Included are a 4-H washing demonstration, soap making by a local home demonstration club, a tasting tea featuring early century recipes being sponsored by the Heritage Woman's Club, an exhibit of antique quilts by the Sue Hite Club and a repeat of the Canyon Exhibit, which was staged during the Panhandle Bicentennial Days festival this past weekend in Amarillo.

The Canyon Exhibit, which will be a feature of the early afternoon activities, will include various exhibit booths with costumed personnel as action activities are provided relating to the nation's historical past.

Designed to entertain young and old alike, the festival will include a demonstration of tumbling, cheerleading, and artwork from the Canyon Summer Recreation program according to A. J. Luquette, summer recreation project chairman. The demonstration by Summer Recreation youths and a series of games for children including three legged races, ball pitching, and others of that type is to begin at 2 o'clock.

The youngest festival goers will have a "hunt for pennies" in the playground area of the park at 3:10 p.m. Bicentennial pennies, furnished by the First National Bank and West Texas State Bank in Canyon, will be hunted by children aged 1-10.

A feature activity for the July 3 fest will be a water polo contest to begin at 3:30 p.m. on the East parking lot of Rex Reeves Elementary School. The water polo activity will be presented by the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department.

Canyon Days '76 will have an afternoon parade at 4:30 p.m. to be based on a historic bicentennial theme. The parade is open to all home town folks who would like to enter a float or other conveyance for the afternoon.

Parade entrants are being signed up by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce with a call to Roland Black, 655-3201. Deadline for parade entries are June 30. Prizes will be awarded for the best decorated entries.

The parade, which will convene at the First National Bank parking lot, will traverse down-town and dismiss at Conner Park. Costumed first grade students who appeared in the "Windows to the Past" bicentennial parade have been asked to make a repeat appearance for the summer-time event. The young folks made such a hit with folks during May and are asked to walk in the parade as far as the United Methodist Church where the parade route will take a southern turn to the park.

The summer-time festival tradition of barbecue and a full plate of trimmings will be served at the park beginning at 6 p.m. Barbecue is being prepared by Canyon Chamber of Commerce and tickets may be purchased at a cost of $2 adults and $1 for children during serving time at the park.

Entertainment for the barbecue serving hours will be provided by the Maverick Club which will demonstrate tumbling techniques.

Open house set Sunday for center

Canyon Senior Citizens will host an open house Sunday afternoon, June 20, at the newly completed meeting center of the organization.

The Senior Citizen building at 1719 5th Avenue (former home of the First Christian Church) was purchased in 1975 at a cost of $22,000 and after almost $14,000 worth of remodeling the Senior Citizens are ready to show the facility to the public.

Open house will be conducted from 3-5 p.m. Sunday with refreshments being served during the occasion. The public is invited to attend by E.R. Dutch Cleavinger, president.

The only item left to remodel at the facility is the main front entrance, which is designed to include a chairlift, and expected to cost in the neighborhood of another $4,000.

A majority of the remodeling for the Senior Citizens Building was handled by the membership with Paul Glover serving as general building chairman.

The man-hours used and a majority of the building materials were contributed by members of the Senior Citizens for the project.

Paul Glover, retired building contractor, served as remodeling chairman for the Canyon Senior Citizens Building and is shown with the recently completed sign. The total construction remodeling phase began last September.

Fund-raiser Saturday for scholarship fund

Canyon's Young Citizens have scheduled a summertime fund-raiser for Saturday, June 19, with proceeds to be added to the already growing scholarship fund named for Gary Castleman, Canyon High School senior who died during early May as a result of a wreck, west of the city.

The summertime fund-raising event will include both a public car wash and a bake sale effort being manned by numerous students of Canyon High School.

In addition to the services being offered by the students, contributions to the fund will be accepted at accounts established at both the First National Bank of Canyon and West Texas State Bank.

To date the memorial account has accumulated about $1,000 with a portion of the account to be used for providing a bronze plaque at Canyon High School, according to Tom Dawdy, Jack Wright, and J.D. Stephens, overall chairmen.

The Canyon Young Citizens group will be adding to the memorial scholarship account through their efforts Saturday, June 19, as bake sales are being conducted at the city's three grocery stores: Ideal Food, Cooper's Thriftway, and Taylor and Sons Food.

The bake sales will be underway at the three locations from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. with (See FUND, Page 5)

The first load of 1976 wheat was turned in to King Elevator in Amarillo from a Randall County farm, the Double H Farms just west of Randall County Feedyard, operated by George Hand. Don Sheets of the elevator said the first load for the year came in Monday afternoon from the irrigated farm. Few dryland acres are expected to be harvested this year in the county due to dry conditions throughout the growing season.

Bible schools annual event for youngsters

Vacation Bible School is an annual event for city youngsters with VBS activities being staged in a majority of Canyon churches during June.

This week VBS activities for youngsters centered on the Ecumenical Vacation Church School where children of all denominations were meeting at five local churches and the First Baptist Church which was conducting their Vacation Bible School training for children of the congregation and their friends.

Local churches involved in the Ecumenical Church School include the First United Methodist Church, First Presbyterian Church, St. Ann's Catholic Church, First Christian Church and the Episcopal Church.

To a youngster, Vacation Bible School doesn't really mean "school". It's a special time to be with friends, to share stories about the Bible, to participate in craft projects under the guidance of someone else's mother, and to have a special play-time period complete with morning kool-aid and assorted cookies.

It's a treat — it's something to remember — and it's fun for all ages from Mommies down to the youngest family member. Fathers, too, share in the excitement of VBS at the parent receptions as they view special handiworks made by their children.

"Friends" discuss projects involving city library here

Canyon "Friends" of the Library met last week to discuss current and future projects at the commissioner's courtroom of the Canyon Civic Complex.

Linnie Harter, Friends chairman, presided at the meeting as plans were outlined for a fall used book sale with proceeds to be used in projects benefiting the library.

John Childs, first vice president, reported to the general membership on the recent purchase of projector equipment for the library which was purchased through "Friends" funds.

A report by Liz Stevens, director, was given on the summer Storytime for pre-school youngsters. The project is sponsored by the "Friends" and meets each week at 10:30 a.m. in the city library with all pre-school children invited to participate at no charge.

Mary Huntington, city librarian, met with the group and discussed current needs of the library which would be suitable projects for the "Friends" in future months.

Other discussions included the appointment of a committee to research the advisability of sponsoring written book reviews, for a public information service with reviews to be printed in the local news media. Named to the committee were Dr. Ruth Lowes and Dorothy Smith.

Another new project for the "Friends" is the possibility of beginning a series of film travelogues to be conducted for older children of the community.

Named to the committee were Joann Reynolds and Lena Wade Phillips.

The "Friends" will further discuss projects at their next regular meeting which was set for August 12 at 4 p.m. in the commissioner's courtroom at the complex. The regular meeting for July was dismissed.

Youths charged

Two men were taken into custody Tuesday morning, accused of a pre-dawn burglary of the Radio Shack on 23rd Street.

Charles Ray Brown, 19, of Borger and Michael Edward Glover, 19, of Pampa were arraigned Tuesday afternoon for burglary after their arrest that morning on a traffic violation.

Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson set bonds of $10,000 on Brown and $5000 on Glover.

The alarm at the electronics store sounded at 4:27 a.m. Police arriving at the scene spotted a car leaving the area and Officer James Farren pursued the vehicle before losing it near Happy.

Two stereo systems valued together at $340 were reported missing in the burglary. Other equipment was found abandoned near the back door.

According to police, the store was entered through a vent in the roof.

Brown and Glover were stopped at 7:30 a.m. because their car matched the description of the vehicle seen earlier near the store. They were arrested for a traffic violation and were then questioned about the burglary.

Glover was charged Tuesday morning with driving with an expired license and Brown was charged with permitting an unlicensed person to drive. They both pleaded guilty to the traffic violations.

A Canyon youth was fined $400 on multiple traffic violations Saturday.

Shad E. Leith pleaded nolo contendere to charges of fleeing from a police officer, running two red lights and speeding 100 in a 55 mph zone.

According to police, Leith was speeding and ran the first traffic light at 2nd Avenue and 23rd Street. The officer began pursuit and Leith raced north at speeds up to 100 mph. He ran a second stop light at 23rd and Spur 48, police charge.

Leith turned off the Expressway at Buffalo Bowl and lost control of his car, sliding sideways into a sign, police said. There were no injuries.

City police also investigated a report of a theft of $40 from the cash register at DeBord's Texaco Saturday, and the theft Friday of tempra paint valued at $50 from First Baptist Church.

Jack Lawson Ward of Amarillo was charged Sunday at 3:45 a.m. with driving while intoxicated.

-America Today-

Essay by Janet Blair

Life in America today is different from any other time in history. True, there is a bad side, as well as a good side, as there is in any nation at any time period.

In America men have studied, done research, and have built equipment that men only dreamed of fifteen years ago. We have ways of getting into outer space, exploring, and getting back again safely. Now men in science laboratories are hoping that soon we will be able to explore planets other than the moon.

Today we have many labor-saving devices. These machines are dishwashers, clothes washers, dryers, and many more. Men are learning how to make machines that can do work for them, and think out problems much faster than men. However, man is still the most intelligent. After all, who built the machines and computers?

But there is a dark side to this advanced generation: pollution of water, ground, and air. Factories' smog fills the air. Cities are full of smog.

Peoples' lungs are going bad because of the unclean air that they breathe. But think about all the materials that factories supply for us. So they must keep going until a better way is found. Pollution of the ground can be stopped. Laziness is the only thing that fights against it. Many organizations are being formed to stop pollution. But it takes time, lots of time, and even in this advanced generation, that is one thing you can't buy or make, time.

Now, since we are in an election year, many men say they know what is best for America. Everyone is listening to them and trying to figure out which one of these men can really help America the most. These men are saying that they can make a better and even more advanced tomorrow for America. They say they'll improve all the bad things, and excel in all the good things. Will they? Has there ever been a great nation with no faults? No, and there never will be. No nation is perfect. I do hope they can improve the bad things and make an even better tomorrow for America. But America, like any other nation in the world, cannot be perfect. It can be good though. And America's tomorrow probably will be.

America today is different and very special. Everything that is being discovered today is a building foundation for the next generation. They will build on top of the foundation to make it bigger, better, and even more advanced.

This great nation was started by Pilgrims. They came to this country for freedom of religion. I believe that if America had a great revival, America's tomorrow would be even greater than America's today.

Ring theft is reported

A ring valued at $7,500 was reported missing from a Canyon Creek apartment Wednesday.

Sharon Watson McQuiddy told police she first discovered the ring was gone the past Saturday and Wednesday she missed a gold-link necklace valued at $250 and a pair of shoes valued at $80. Her apartment is kept locked, she said.

Two chrome wheels and radial tires stolen in an April break-in at Dorris Garage were recovered last week and an Amarillo man was charged with the theft.

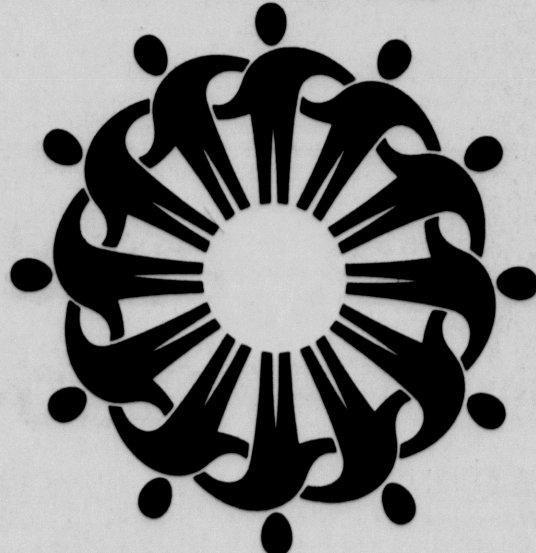

Daniel Garcia was charged Wednesday with theft of goods valued at over $20 and less than $200.

Police are investigating a criminal mischief complaint at WT Conoco service station. Gene Morrison reported Thursday that glass was shattered in a window on the north side of the building.

54 pints of blood given for Ruthart

Fifty-four pints of blood had been donated by Canyon area residents by early this week to replace supplies needed by Ralph Ruthart who has been hospitalized in Amarillo and Dallas.

Cristler Crain, who has headed up the effort to seek donations for the replacement pints, said others who wish to donate may do so at Coffee Memorial Blood Bank in Amarillo.

A memorial scholarship fund in honor of the late West Texas State University Plant Science Department Head Jimmie Green has been established by the WTSU School of Agriculture. Green, 46, died June 9.

Volunteers needed for library work

The city library board is searching for volunteers this fall to help keep the library open longer.

As it stands now, once the summer employees, paid with federal grant money, leave, the library will only be open 25 1/2 hours a week.

"I oppose narrowing the hours," said library board chairman Walter Shelly. "We have such an investment there. When we lock those doors, we're not serving the public."

The board will try to get enough volunteers to work several hours a week at the library to extend the hours.

In other business, the board approved an end of the summer swim party for youngsters completing the summer reading program.

They also agreed to investigate providing a film and discussion series for the fall.

Mrs. Mary Huntington, librarian, reported that library usage was down slightly from last month but was ahead of the usage at the same time last year. A total of 32 new books were acquired at the library during May.

Georgia choir in concert at church

The Athens, Georgia Chapel Choir will be appearing in concert this evening, June 17, at 8 o'clock in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church in Canyon.

The public is invited to hear the 52 voice youth choir which is composed of students grade 8-12.

The choir is one of six singing choirs and three handbell choirs of the Athens, Georgia Methodist congregation.

The Chapel Touring Choir will be singing a program of music featuring American composers. While in Canyon, the youth will be houseguests of various congregational members locally.

The group will be singing in California, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and throughout Texas on the summer tour under direction of Herbert Hoffman.

A reception will follow the concert with the public invited to attend.

Two plats on agenda

The plat for an addition to the Hidden Valley area and the preliminary plans for an addition to Tierra Blanca will be reviewed today at 7 p.m. by the planning and zoning commission.

The Hidden Valley plat was approved last week by city commissioners with the mandate to include a cul-de-sac in a service alley.

The plat will now go back to the planning and zoning commission for final recommendation before it is returned to the city commission for final approval.

The proposal in Tierra Blanca addition will extend 15th Avenue to the east.

GREEN THUMB — Jan Blair, employed in the city water department, cares for some of the plants in the city's collection at the civic complex.

Green grows the saintpaulia in Canyon's civic complex

Have you seen any good Araucaria heterophylla lately? Or how about a thriving Ficus elastica decora?

You can find healthy examples of both those and several other varieties by taking a walk through the civic complex.

After a shaky start for some, the plants at city hall are thriving in the abundance of light and near-constant temperature of the sky-lighted building.

Seven plants in large white ceramic containers and the re-potting of the Norfolk Island Pine (or Araucaria heterophylla) were included in the budget for decoration and furniture. Total cost to the city was $200.

Other plants were soon added as gifts and employees brought plants from home to increase the collection.

In addition to the pine, there are several rubber trees (Ficus elastica decora); a dragon tree; a striped inch plant; an umbrella tree; a spider plant, begonias, weeping fig, mother-in-law plant, philodendron, Swedish ivy, African violet, (Saint Paulia), amaryllis and strawberry begonia.

New dean joins WTSU

Dr. Gail Shannon, new dean of education at West Texas State University, brings a sincere belief in "the dignity and worth of education" to his new duties.

Shannon, former acting president at Eastern New Mexico University, joined the WTSU staff June 1. He had been ENMU vice-president for academic affairs and dean of the faculty from 1967 through 1975, and an academic dean for six years prior to that.

"I have always tried to look at it in operational terms," he says. "I believe education is fundamental to all that we must do as individuals in society. It is probably the major opportunity we have to work toward the improvement of society and the development of a better culture in which we live."

Education, to Shannon, "is a never-ending and thus always continuing process."

"We have been at fault in our basic system of education in that we have periods when we graduate people and they have a tendency to think that their education is over. This is an unfortunate connotation," he continues.

"All these people must strive to continue their education by one source or means throughout their lives."

Teachers are also not exempt from responsibility in the educational process, according to Shannon.

"I think we have a very serious and responsible role as teachers to develop a positive attitude toward education, to make it challenging, to make it interesting, to make it exciting."

"I am afraid that the concept of compulsory education has again become negative, and it causes young people to believe that they will only learn what they are forced to learn rather than learn for what the joy and excitement of learning will provide them," he says.

"I see education as a fundamental to all we do and as being very important to all people regardless of economic status, regardless of background and regardless of goals and future plans. Whatever we may do, each of us will most certainly find the real need and the real value of education if we are to live a full and satisfying life."

Shannon, 59, is married to Helen Edwards Shannon, and has two sons, Michael and Mark. The Wellsville, Kansas, native earned his bachelor's degree from Kansas State Teachers College, and his master's and doctorate degrees from Ohio State University.

Shannon has taught six years in elementary and secondary schools, nine years in colleges and universities, and has served for 18 years as a college and university administrator.

He rose to administrative ranks while at the University of Oklahoma during the 1950s, serving as assistant dean, College of Education, from 1958 to 1960.

In 1958, he received a United States Air Force commendation for outstanding work as an education consultant and development of leadership training for the Air Force ROTC at OU.

Shannon is a member of National Education Association, Phi Delta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and Kappa Delta Pi, Boy Scouts of America, and Kiwanis.

He and his wife reside in Canyon.

Hereford field day set in July at WT ranch

Texas Junior Hereford Association members have finalized plans for their annual field day to be held Thursday, July 8, at West Texas State University Nance Ranch east of Canyon, according to TJHA president, Sue Rusche, Llano.

Preliminary activities will actually get underway on July 7 as members of the Panhandle Hereford Breeders Association will stage an "open house" that day, encouraging interested persons to visit member ranches throughout the Texas Panhandle area at their leisure. Also scheduled for the seventh will be the TJHA state showmanship preliminaries beginning at 4 p.m. at the WTSU Nance Ranch. Later that same evening the Texas Hereford Auxiliary will host an ice cream supper at the Villa Inn in Amarillo.

Thursday activity kicks off at 8 a.m. with the registration of contestants and a special attraction in the form of entertainment. Following the bicentennial style opening ceremonies, the remainder of the morning will consist of the showmanship finals, a judging a public hearing on the budget the following week.

Canyon Insurance Agent Cary Magnus presented a proposal for insurance for the district's buildings for the next three years.

After some discussion, the board cut four Umbarger structures from the insurance program, and approved a premium of about $48,000 for the three-year period.

The board also voted to ask the City of Canyon to close an alley bisecting a lot the board purchased Tuesday night for construction of six tennis courts northwest of Canyon High School.

The board met in executive session following their regular meeting, but took no action as a result of the closed meeting.

Death of loved one hits hard

Perhaps the most intense trauma is not our own death, but the death of someone we love, says Dr. Louis Fairchild, professor and head of psychology at West Texas State University.

Dr. Fairchild has just returned from a Conference on Women's Concerns in Kerrville where he led the discussions on dealing with people in grief and dealing with the terminally ill.

"For the most part, people have tended to think that their own death was the most catastrophic thing that could happen to them," Fairchild says. "But people seem to die peacefully, although not happily, yet they somehow can get their life into order."

"While death is the end for them, in another sense of the word, death is really the beginning for the survivors. While the patient may die serenely, the griever does not grieve serenely, and this is a beginning of a profound problem for them."

The problem, according to Fairchild, is probably cultural. "Some people say death is the new pornography, because we have suppressed it so long," he says.

"I think there are similarities in the way we have taught children about death and sex. We have tended to take a very repressive, very denying type approach with kids."

This type of attitude is not a fact of history, Fairchild points out, because other societies have managed to face death openly. "We seem to have some kind of survival instinct over and above other eras," he says. "The technology of life, such as the ability to preserve and to beautify with cosmetics, is something we have carried into death. We have a hard time separating life and its technology from our unwillingness to deal with the reality of death."

Part of the problem is our institutionalization of death in hospitals and rest homes.

"We have segregated ourselves from death and this has contributed to the anxiety and our fear of it."

Dr. Fairchild has these suggestions for dealing with death.

"You need to face death openly," he notes. "When people are able to talk about their apprehensions and anxieties they are able to handle it much better. Denial avoids the problem."

"The matter of honesty and directness is one of the greatest contributions that has been made in learning how to deal with death," he says.

Another important part of helping a grieving person is "to be there, and to be there early," Fairchild says.

"You also need to demonstrate acceptance of whatever emotions the person is experiencing, because they will be variegated," he said.

Program here on bilingual education

A program for bilingual education, a relatively new concept on the educational scene, is being implemented by West Texas State University this fall.

Bilingual education can be defined as the use of both the English language and another tongue as a media of instruction.

The Texas Education Agency recently approved the WTSU bilingual education certification program, according to Dr. Maria Tarrab, assistant professor and head of modern languages.

Dr. Tarrab and Dr. May Gill, assistant professor of modern languages, have received a Faculty Venture Fund grant enabling them to purchase needed material to actuate the bilingual education program.

Materials purchased and used in teaching bilingual education would be the same material a teacher would find in a public school system. The material would serve to acquaint the student with materials needed to do an effective job, according to Dr. Tarrab.

The 24-semester-hour program is interdepartmental in scope and Bilingual Language Arts and Spanish Linguistics are the only totally new courses in the endorsement curriculum. "Bilingual education is not 'foreign language' instruction, but the use of each language to teach all of the curriculum," Dr. Tarrab said.

Of most area schools implementing a bilingual program, transitional bilingualism is the predominant choice, Dr. Tarrab explained.

In this program, Spanish is used in the early grades to the extent necessary to allow pupils to adjust to school and/or to master subject matter until their skill in English is developed to the point that it alone can be used as the medium of instruction, Dr. Gill said.

The Faculty Venture Fund will be used to acquire bilingual-bicultural materials for kindergarten through the sixth grade level which could be used in teaching the methodology of Bilingual Language Arts I and II, Dr. Tarrab added.

WTSU already has begun offering Spanish Linguistics, a requirement for bilingual certification. A course of Latin culture and conversation will be instructed by Dr. Gill. A course of Spanish culture will also be offered to teachers with concentration in bilingual education.

Future objectives of the bilingual program would be the approval of the proposed master's degree in bilingual education or Master of Arts degree with concentration in bilingual education. The development of courses in library science which would deal with obtaining, storage and retrieval of bilingual-bicultural materials and the possibility of offering in-service training to area teachers are other goals of the bilingual program at WTSU, according to Dr. Tarrab.

Festival...

summer festival will be a lowering of the time capsule and dedication rites to be held at 8:30 p.m. The ceremony will include recognition for Canyon Girl Scouts, who have planted new trees at the park and the flag lowering to be conducted by the Boy Scouts of Canyon.

Immediately following dedication ceremonies, the free fireworks display celebrating America's 200th birthday will be set off at the park in the South area and adjacent the swimming pool to the West. Spectators are encouraged to find viewing room in the central and northern section of the city park for the fireworks display.

The fireworks are scheduled to be among the best displays to be fired in the Panhandle this year with sponsoring organizations including the Canyon Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, Noon Lions Club, and the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. Assistance at the fireworks will be lent by the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department.

Spectacular feature of this year's fireworks display will include several specially arranged on the ground scenes including a 10 x 15 American Flag which is to open the program. Along with the traditional rocket launchings and other fireworks, the ground displays to be set off just west of the swimming pool at the South end of the park are a 100 foot arrangement of "Niagara Falls" and a "Curtain of Flame."

Concluding the fireworks and a full day of fun will be the bicentennial themed display of "Uncle Sam in Prayer."

The festival planning has been handled by a committee composed of Jane Stephens, chairman, Mary Alice Hines, John Childs, Roland Black, Linda Cooper, Harold and Lanette Hagemeier, George Ritter, Ken Thompson, Lois Hull, Kathy Glazener and George Blackwell.

Job tough Hutton says

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton, victim last year of a hit-and-run driver in Austin, returned from a state-wide conference over the weekend again with the idea that his job may be hazardous to his health.

Hutton attended a Texas County and District Clerk's Association conference last week where he was told that about 11 per cent of the state's clerks suffered heart attacks last year.

He said one of the primary points of discussion at the conference was the health of the membership. Hutton said several officers of the association have been stricken, and a couple have died from it, by heart-attacks over the year.

"I'd say we were in a state of shock," he said. "These guys have been county clerks for years."

Texas. "I told them if nobody complained we wouldn't file on them," he said. "But to sell enough tickets they said they'd have to go to the Tri-State Fair and that's not a good idea."

As outlined Monday night, the plan of the promotion would have been to sell tickets throughout the Panhandle on the car. The give-away would have been sometime during the fall, possibly a West Texas State University football game.

Wilcox said state law provides that promotion of gambling is a third degree felony. The term "lottery" in state law means "any scheme or procedure whereby one or more prizes are distributed by chance among persons who have paid or promised consideration for a chance to win anything of value, whether such scheme or procedure is called a pool, lottery, raffle, gift, gift enterprise, sale... or some other name."

Knowles had offered the suggestion after he had been approached by chamber board members for ideas to raise money for the purchase of Christmas decorations for the city.

In other business Monday night, the board assigned to Weldon Trice the responsibility for preparing barbecue for the upcoming July 3rd Canyon Days Celebration.

Barbecue will be prepared for 1500 persons and tickets will be $2 per plate for adults and $1 per plate for children.

Kenneth Thompson reported that at least 50 entries can be expected in the July 3rd parade.

The board also approved giving $100 to WTSU to help defray bus expenses during freshman orientation sessions this summer.

They also added $20,000 to the county road department budget for additional equipment.

DOGGY DONATION — A portion of the class fee for a dog obedience training class now going on in Conner Park was contributed this week to the City Parks and Recreation Fund. Virginia Cotton, fund treasurer, accepts a $20 donation from King, a 9-year-old German Shepherd. Having already earned two training degrees, King is not a student in the training class. He just lent a hand, er, that is tooth, to the parks fund.

Happy news:

CowBelles urging beef for papa

By MARY NEAL HENRY
THE BIG NEWS is "BEEF FOR FATHER'S DAY!" Make Dad king on his day and serve him the very best — Beef.

CowBelles from 40 states in the nation have been promoting beef for Father's Day for over 20 years. If you are lucky enough to still have your father, cook him a beef dinner or send him a Beef Gift Certificate from your local bank for his Father's Day.

GAN in the area this week with a bang. The hot dry winds seemed to have taken the last moisture out of the grain and finished ripening it.

Combines are rolling from early until late. That wheat that received more of the recent rains is all that isn't ready for harvest.

HAPPY COWBELLES MET in the home of Mrs. C.D. Taylor on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Earl Reynolds presented plans on Beef For Father's Day projects in the area. Among those plans are the passing out of beef placemats to be used in schools and for organization luncheons.

Happy CowBelles will have a float in the parades of Canyon, Tulsa and Happy this year. The first work day is scheduled on June 30 at 2 p.m. in a Harman-Toles barn. All Happy CowBelles are asked to donate one dollar or a package of beef to be given away at this time.

A report of the May 15th participation in the Bicentennial celebration of Canyon was given. Happy CowBelles made approximately $25 selling beef brownies of which 25 percent was donated to the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Ruby Vise read a letter of thanks from Frances Owen, Texas president, for the hospitality extended her when she visited.

CowBelles present were Nora Taylor, Othella McGehee, Bernice Hamblen, Myra Nell Culp, Joyce Wheat, Delores Wilhelm, Judy Thompson, Cherie Holland, Leona McFarland, Ruby Vise, Modenia Rahlfs, Vera Eubanks, Mrs. Wineblood, Teri Pearson, Willie Butler, Joan Reynolds, and LaNelle Todd.

AMY WALLACE WAS honored with a bridal shower on Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. L. Cabe. Guests were greeted at the door by the hostess, the honoree, Mrs. El-burn Wallace, Mrs. Jack Gilleland and Mrs. Belah Gilleland.

The serving table was covered with a red cloth and centered with red and white carnations entwined with bridal wreath. Angel rolls and strawberry punch were served from milk glass service. Debbie Magness, Gay Venhaus, and Cindy McGavock served during the afternoon. Dana Cheek registered guests.

Many out of town guests and relatives attended the shower.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames: R. L. Cabe, Frank Tirey, Joe Bob Jones, Simon Elliott, Bob Hargrave and Trisha, Danny White, Bill Andrews, Carol Sims, Roman Weaver and Ramona, Lonnie Todd, Adrian Bates, Robert Lee, Joyce Wheat, Glenn Carter, Bill Penn, A. J. McCarley and Debbie, Burl Sims, Larry Tackitt, W. T. Robinson, Quentin Gill, W. D. McCarley, Ricky Dugan, Willard Middleton, George White and Nancy, Velma Greenfield, John Toles, Evans Hollans, Shirley LaRoe and Jini, Harry Hardaway, O.K. McDonald, Charles McCaslin and Kim, Lloyd Venhaus and girls, Eddie Walters and Shawn, Ervin Wilson, Merl McFarland, Don Magness and Debbie, Eugene Jackson, J. J. Scarborough, Lewis Cannon, Norville Breedlove, Glen McCaslin, Judy Carlisle, W. C. Teel, Ronnie Middleton and Kenneth Weavers.

RUBY VISE RECENTLY won the '210' award at the National Bowling Tournament in Denver, Colo. Over 6000 teams across the nation were entered in the gigantic event.

The bowling alley contained 80 lanes and housed other activities as well... everything from a pinball machine to a swimming pool which covers a half acre.

Ruby bowled a 203 game and was presented the '200' pin award.

Ruby also toured the Casa Bonita while she was in Denver. This is an underground house featuring molten rock, tropical foliage, and is truly picturesque. Of the many places of interest visited, the Casa Bonita and the mint were the most interesting.

We saw Ruby dining at the El Camino recently. She had friends, Ruth Foster and Gussie Bailey, with her.

DOROTHY MAGNESS HAS steadily improved since open heart surgery recently in a Lubbock hospital. If all continues to go well, Dot should be at home this week-end in Dimmitt.

OUR SYMPATHY TO Hazel Stubblefield on the death of her son, Walter Ralph. Walter was a 1972 graduate of Happy High School and had graduated only a month ago from WTSU with a degree in business.

The eleventh season of the musical romance "TEXAS" which pits the farmer, Calvin Armstrong (played by Ron Williams) against the cattle baron and the elements of weather opened Wednesday evening in the Pioneer Amphitheatre of Palo Duro Canyon. Lead ac-triss for the season as Elsie, the Eastern trained lass, is Pamela Hurst. For information and tickets contact "TEXAS" at Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or make reservations by calling the box office 806-655-2182.

Founding dreamer honored

"TEXAS" founder, Margaret Harper, has been recognized throughout Texas and across the nation for the outdoor musical show which was established as a result of her enthusiasm and the backing of area residents who founded the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

The "dream" of an outdoor show in the canyons began in 1960 as the Ples Harpers and William Moores visited and discussed an intriguing article about the show's author, Paul Green, which appeared in the "Reader's Digest."

After contacting Green, who was receptive of the idea for an outdoor show, a small group of Canyon people brought the noted playwright to the site and "TEXAS" was begun. In its 10 year history, the show has played to over 770,000 tourists and area folks and been noted as the nation's number one summertime attraction for several seasons.

William A. and Margaret Moore, who were in on that early "dreaming" session, have served as the "TEXAS" directing staff since its early beginnings and Margaret Harper, founder, has been recognized with numerous awards for her part in that "dream."

In connection with "TEXAS", Mrs. Harper has received the Trustees Award from the National Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City this past April; was recognized with the Texas Panhandle Award For Distinguished Service at West Texas State University in Canyon during April, 1976; and was presented the Odyssey 2000 Good Neighbor Award, also during April.

Other awards presented in connection with "TEXAS" have been the Governor's Tourist Development Award in November.

Gensler to take leave for project

Dr. Philip J. Gensler, professor and head of Computer Information Systems Department at West Texas State University, will take a year leave of absence to work with Phillips Petroleum Co. in Bartlesville, OK.

Phillips has hired Dr. Gensler to work on a project entailing large data bases. Dr. Gensler's year will begin in mid-August and will fall during the middle of the three-year project.

1974 at a Tourist Conference on Padre Island; and Awards of Recognition from the Canyon Kiwanis Club and University Study Club, along with the Branding Iron Award at West Texas State University. She also was named for Accolades by the Amarillo Globe-Times twice and received the Cultural Achievement Award of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Fort Worth in November 1967.

Mrs. Harper was a guest of Mrs. Lyndon Johnson at the White House at one of the luncheons for "Women in Action," and has been named to "Who's Who In American Women" and the "International Who's Who in Music," published in England.

In addition to her other awards the Canyon Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Citizen Award was bestowed on Mrs. Harper in January 1966, the year that the dream "TEXAS" was first put on stage in Palo Duro Canyon.

Supper, games and fellowship for Sr. Citizens

Weekly supper hour for the Canyon Senior Citizens will be at 7 p.m. this evening, June 17, as the group convenes at the new Senior Citizens Building, 1719 5th Avenue.

LAURA JOKERST

First class scouting award presented to Laura Jokerst

The "first class" award for Girl Scout accomplishments was awarded recently to Laura Jokerst, 15, who has been involved in the scouting program locally for eight years.

The first class award is equivalent to the Eagle Scout award of Boy Scouting and Miss Jokerst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans of Rt. 2, Canyon, says that the challenges of knowing yourself, international understanding, the arts and the out of doors are special fun.

She started on the first class award while a seventh grade Cadette Scout, and this fall will be sophomore student at Canyon High School. The presentation of the first class award was made during May at a Troop 187 awards ceremony.

Laura's younger sister, Katherine, 12, is also involved in Scouting and her mother has been a leader in scouting work since the girls first became involved in the scouting program.

Last summer, according to Laura, the highlight of her scouting career came as she went on a summer scouting trip with three other girls from the Amarillo area to Savannah, Ga., to visit the birthplace of the Girl Scout founder, Juliette Low.

"That trip was not only educational — but a lot of fun and it helped me learn to live with people," she said. In accomplishing the first class award, Miss Jokerst explained that the arts challenge gives scouts the chance to learn the difference between an art and a craft; the challenge of knowing oneself is designed to help the scout know and understand making of goals and ideals; the challenge of international understanding gives the opportunity to better view the world by becoming acquainted with other nations, customs and people; and the out of doors challenge is designed to teach scouts to live in harmony with the outdoors and shows the importance of responsibility to nature.

Every now and then I find myself with strength which is greater than I possess, thoughts which are clearly above my own, or a love where there had been hate or cynicism. And always I am overwhelmed by the many undeserved blessings which have come to me. In all of these I recognize, and give thanks for, a living and active God. I will worship Him this Sunday in First Christian Church.

Kids teams going strong

FARRIS ANN MORRISON
MY FIRST TASK this week is to thank all contributors, especially Karolyn Farmer. We must have spent two hours on the phone.

She's a tough gal to follow, but great to work with.

THERE'S A NEW baby in our area. Sherilyn and Mike Sorenson are the proud parents of a boy, Mikel Lane, born May 26th at Northwest, 6 lbs. 14 1/2 oz.

The grandparents are Jerry and Jane Davis, Jim and Kathy Sorenson. In the "small world" department, Jim's parents, Nels and Mildred, were neighbors of ours when I was a little girl.

KID'S INCORPORATED
TEAMS are into the season. Judy Kitten, assisted by Betty Watts, has a team of half first graders, half kindergarten age. They've played one game against South Georgia and only lost by one point! Even though it was a non-conference game, one point is so close.

The girls are really having fun, but here's hoping that they win their two games this week. Participating are Lee Lynn Lindsay, Kelly Bulla, Diane Drost, Melanie Kitten, Paige Martin, Michelle Mullins, Stacy McMinn, Debbie Gilmore, Tamra Sewell, Robin Watts, Ginger Sauer, Sissy Garrison, Cathy Meier, Gina Lucero, Sharon Ralls, Kim Meyers, and Melody Morgan.

THE 1ST GRADE boys are coached by Terry Robinson, and are also about one third kindergarten age. They have played four of nine games so far. Although they haven't had a win yet the scores show some good hitting. Eastridge beat them 39-18, Olsen Park 36-20, Lawdale 29-27, Western Plaqueau 36-31.

Since I couldn't hit a basketball with a tennis racket, I really have to admire 6 and 7 year olds who get 31 runs — in only one game! The team roster includes Tom Robinson, John Bruffett, Brett Polvadore, Jamie Warner, John Cespedes, Trey Kuntz, Kevin Potts, Bobby Segedy, Taylor Suffield, Tim Cunningham, Kevis Wilbanks, Jason Clifton, Jerry Huff, Raymond Jenkins, Chris Williams, and Ty Buchanan.

RON GARRISON AND Bob Trook coach the other 1st grade boy's team. Close scores still spelled three losses: Wolfelin 42-37, Coronado 31-30, Ridgecrest 39-28. The boys are hitting well according to coach Garrison, really having a ball — no pun intended.

Sixteen boys are on the team: Brent Baker, Wayne Bernier, Cory Bryant, Stephen Camouse, Cam Garrison, Ryan Holt, Ryan Hyatt, Paul Jolley, Jason Jones, Mark Maxwell, Glen Miller, Brent Morgan, Greg Morgan, Derek Smith, Robbie Trook and Clinton Weeter.

Monday night's game had Gene Howe winning over South Georgia 37-35. Derek Smith, Cory Bryant, and Cam Garrison hit home runs. The team's next game will be Thursday, at Gene Howe's southwest field, 6 p.m., against Belmar.

ONE OF GENE Howe's hardball teams, the Yankees, split wins with Rex Reeves teams. We lost to the Senators, but beat the Indians.

Yankee team members are: Hal Simpson, Greg Cates, Rob Bulla, Mike Cunningham, Daryle Williams, Delbert Hollis, Jay Edwards, Chris Seth, Troy Cates, Mark White, Brett White, Don Meier, Lynn Vanlandingham, Joe White and Brent Matlock. Coach Edwards is assisted by Bill Simpson and Bill Seth with June Vanlandingham as scorekeeper.

RICK WARREN COACHES the other hardball team, assisted by Royal Yarbrough, T.C. Newkirk, and John Zachary. The team has played eight games, won two, but lost the rest by only a couple of points. The second game, played against the Twins of Rex Reeves, was the only game the Twins have lost.

Boys on the Red Legs are Scott Newkirk, Tony Warren, Clay Sutton, Dub Austin, Chris Knight, Royal Yarbrough Jr., Brent Mitchell, Brent Zachary, Shay Bowling, Buddy Vance, Rod Wilcox, Tod Wilcox, Roger Robertson, Pike Martin, and Kip Camfield.

LARRY BROOKS AND Bob Morgan coach the 5th grade boys team who are 1-3. Hamlet was their first game. Kenny Ramey, Chris Poole, and Mike Morgan hit home runs. In the second game against Ridgecrest our boys were behind 34-16 in the last inning. Not only did we hold them to 34, we made 16 more runs to lose by only two runs! Kevin Smith and Dwayne Hollis accounted for two home runs.

Only one problem — Greg Evans hurt his shoulder and will have to take it easy for the rest of the season. Humphrey Highland lost to the team 35-30.

Kevin Smith, Chris Poole, Dale

Whitehead, Mike Morgan, Michael Longhofer each made a home run; Dwayne Hollis made two. Besides the above boys, the team includes Kirk Balke, John Brooks, Mike Dziedzic, Gary Evans, David Hamilton, John Hunt, Greg Maples, Kevin Maxwell, Sam Pender, Kenny Ramey, Michael Rhea, and Jimmy Scott.

OF FOUR GAMES that the 5th grade girls have played, they won two of the three non-conference games and their first conference game. Frank Garrett, coach, says the girls are a second half team; they lost to Eastridge by 6, but had been behind over 20 runs! Ridgecrest was the first conference game. With Ridgecrest leading 6-1 in the third, our girls came back to win

The season will end July 6th, but the girls have hopes for the finals. We'll hope for some more victories like San Jacinto, 50-20.

Coach Garrett is assisted by Valerie Davis. The girls are Missy Davis, Shellie Camouse, Darlene Miles, Michelle Arnett, Shelley Jobe, Denise Morgan, Gemma Johnson, Catana Black, Tresha Rosenbaum, Valerie Chadester, Tina Polk, Tammie Wilcox, Carol Rogers, and Tonya Thompson. (Please note, spellings of all these beautiful names come from the school directory so if I'm mistaken, my apologies. Whatever happened to "Mary" and "Jane"?)

LOTS OF OUR people have been having fun. Larry and Donna Cunningham, Tim and Mike attended a family reunion (an annual affair) in Childress. No one actually lives in Childress; it is a central location for the fifty plus members of Larry's family. While we're here, so to speak, we are happy to hear that Donna's sister, Linda Chedester is doing nicely after tangling with a bush and suffering an eye injury.

GARY AND NACIA West, Roy and Sheri have gotten back from a camping trip in the cool mountains below the Pecos Wilderness area. Then up to Taos. Nacia's parents accompanied them, Mr. and Mrs. C.F. Stewart. With three days of vacation left, they went to their farm in Montague County, and Gary said they WORKED! I can sympathize since we're going through the same thing.

WE DID GET to go to Lake Meredith Saturday. All the big fish are hiding because we caught either six different tiny ones or the same tiny one six times. However, Mandi and Mark got to play in the water, and I got a terrific shade burn. True!

My father, Lynn Bennett, will be going to Kingspoint, N.Y. June 30. I'm really jealous! As a Bicentennial event, sailing ships from all over the world are having a regatta from Newport, R.I., up Long Island Sound to dock in New York City before sailing up the Hudson, and he gets to see it all. From there, he'll go visit my sister in New Haven, Conn.

JOHN AND SHEILA Hicks (parents: Phyllis and Johnny) attended the Lubbock B.C. Swim Meet. Approximately seventy members of ten different teams competed.

John swam in the ten years and under boys' division, and I would say he made a pretty nice haul: 2nd place in 50 yd. back stroke, 2nd in 50 yd. free style, 3rd in 100 yd. free style, 3rd in 200 yd. individual medley, and a 4th in 50 yd. breast stroke.

Sheila in the 13-14 yr. old girls' division brought home a 1st place for both the 100 yd. breast stroke and 100 yd. free style. Her other places were 2nd in 200 yd. free style, 3rd in 100 yd. back stroke, and 2nd in 200 yd. individual medley.

JUDY KITTEN'S PARENTS, Mr. and Mrs. George Schulte, and her sister, Mrs. Teddy Fangman from Hereford were visited by Judy over the weekend. Leroy, Judy's husband, stayed home to receive a shipment of plants from Florida for their greenhouse on Sundown Lane.

RONNIE AND JACKIE Mayfield and their children Sandy, Angela, Dewayne, Sherry, Kelly and Rita took Ronnie's brother and family to Grady, N.M., last weekend for a family reunion of the Mayfields. Edwin and Lorraine Mayfield, Michael, Russell, Randall, and Shawn came from California to join 52 others at the reunion.

TIM SETH, 13, was in Red River with his brother Bill Dee for a week. His mother, Pat Seth, and Sarah Edwards road-tested Pat's new car and picked him up. While there, they admired the mountains and enjoyed the nice cool weather.

However, the other Seth, Bill, had some problems. He now knows every cranny of the Albuquerque Airport. Pat made three trips to pick him up and finally got him home. Naturally, he was routed through Dallas. I've heard that if you died and were going "you know where" you'd have to go through Dallas!

THE EUCLID/SHER-WOOD Streets garage sale was not necessarily a financial success. Sarah Edwards said they really got a lot of visiting done, but most of the neighbors just swapped junk. Well, at least it was different junk.

THAT'S ABOUT IT. If you didn't see it here, you didn't tell me about it! Do something exciting this week — then call me. 372-7349.
